When do I pay?

On receiving your completed registration form, we will send an official confirmation and invoice within 3 days. Payment is due immediately. In the event that payment has not been received before the start of the event, delegates will be refused entry. We recommend you check with your finance department that payment has been made before travelling to the conference.

Cancellation policy:

Where payment has already been made no refund will be given on cancellations, but a substitute delegate can be named at any time before the event starts and no fees will be applied to this.

Conference programme:

EnergyNet reserves the right to alter the Africa Energy Forum timing, content and speakers. The contract is subject to English law.

Indemnity:

In the unlikely event that the Africa Energy Forum has to be cancelled, EnergyNet is not liable for any travel and accommodation costs incurred by delegates in connection with their registration. EnergyNet cannot accept liability for any loss, cost or expense suffered or incurred by any person arising from reason of war, including threat of war, riots and civil strife, terrorism and threats thereof, natural disaster, weather, fire, flood, drought, technical, mechanical or electrical breakdown within any premises visited by delegates in connection with the conference, non-provision of services provided by hotel companies or transport operators, industrial disputes, government action, regulations, or technical problems which may affect the services provided in connection with the event. There is no entry permitted into the event without full payment beforehand. Invoices are payable straight away. EnergyNet are part of the Clarion group.
